

Policy on Staff Records

Staff employment records will be held by the setting.

These will include records of attendance, training attended, salary payments, vetting checks, complaints, disciplinary action taken.

These records will be held securely within the setting and retained for the duration of the employment.

Staff members have a right to access all records held. Requests for such access should be made to the manager/principal.