

Homework Policy

In Holy Trinity After School Club children can choose to do their homework during their free play time, if they wish to do so. A quiet space will be provided for any children who do wish to do part of or complete their homework.

We do have to remind parents and carers that although we will provide the provision for homework the overall responsibility to check and sign off all homework rests with the parent/carer.